

2008 Shiraz

"This 2008 release is the first to include whole bunches (15%). I don't mind a bit of whole bunch action in general and I definitely don't mind it here. Gives the wines a meatier aspect. More food-like, in a way. It smells and tastes of sap, smoke, cured meats and deep black cherries. Really smart. Lovely to drink. Peppery. Very tasty."

Rated 92+points, Campbell Mattinson July 2012