WINEMAKING NOTES

Crisp and floral, this rich and full-bodied wine has been crafted from the Italian varietal, Arneis (pronounced ah-na-se). Spending a mere three months in barrel, this wine is waxy and aromatic with delightful characters of lemon, honey dew and an enticingly textural mouthfeel. Inspiration for this classically beautiful wine was taken from the works of Monet that are easily recognizable. As is this wine, to all Arneis enthusiasts alike.

TASTING NOTES

Wafts of wildflowers and green pear on the nose that lead into a linear, oily lining finish with apple strudel and vanilla.
